Affairs of the Ohio Life and Trust Company.

STATEMENT OF THE AFFAIRS
(From the Cincinnati Gazette, Sept. 11.)

We publish the report of the managers of the Ohio Life and Trust Company, which has been annually issued to the stockholders. This is a very readable extract, but owing to the extreme condition of the accounts at New York, it is the best summary that could be made at this time. The feelings do not allow much enlargement on the subject.

The New York office was the greatest source of trouble, and the stockholders have nothing left, and, doubtless, will not receive a redressal for the same.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 18, 1858.—THE CHEMISTS AND STOCKHOLDERS OF THE OHIO LIFE INSURANCE AND TRUST COMPANY.

The following statement of the estimated value of the assets of the Ohio Life and Trust Company, at New York, is based upon the latest statement of the company, showing as nearly as can be ascertained, what it is now in their power to show to the condition of its affairs at the office in Cincinnati, and at the agency in New York.
